

Inquiry online.

Compiled by Kath Murdoch – 2012

The web is FULL of information, ideas, examples and opinions about inquiry based learning. The list below is merely the tip of a very big iceberg which is growing every hour. By exploring the best of what the web has to offer, you can strengthen your own inquiry into inquiry – lashed with generous servings of critical thinking and discernment! I encourage you to create your own on line professional learning network. You won't look back.
